Charming Neglige of Peau De Soie.

Every woman appreciates a pretty negligee and nothing could be more charming than this creation of peau de soie, trimmed with heavy genuine lace in the new champagne tint. The front is mousseline de soie, shirred over heavy cords at intervals. The neck is round, not very low. The fronts of the negligee are loose and fall away from the sides where they are tacked at the under arms seams. The plait in the back falls from the neck and is embellished with an elaborate design of lace. The sleeves are finished with a cape-like face at the top and a full mousseline de soie undersleeve ending in a deep cuff of peau de soie. The modes carried out in any of the champagne tints, white, or ciel or pale rose. The best material to use for such a garment is crepe de chine or peau de soie which combined with the use of Corticelli sewing silk will invariably result in a dainty little negligee.

Red is still a favorite color for hats, red tulle hats trimmed with poppies being quite the thing. A black tulle hat, worn well back on the head has for its principal trimming two very large spread white wings. A hat of fancy straw for young girls may be bound with velvet and have a large white pom-pom on one side. The turban is very popular, the brim often being covered with flowers and sometimes being left plain, or with a stiff wing on the side.

DO GOOD—IT PAYS.

A Chicago man has observed that, Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You can not possibly lose by it. Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up." A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it, for it has helped me out many a time. Sold by all druggists.
